16 DATA PROTECTION

The organizing authority will process and store personal data collected from entering and participating in the event. Addendum 1 "Data Privacy Policy" gives relevant information and details.

17. LIMITATION OF LIABILITY SALVATORY CLAUSE

- 17.1 The responsibility for the decision to participate in a race or to continue with it is solely with the skipper; to that extent the skipper also accepts full responsibility for the crew. The skipper is responsible for the qualification and the correct nautical conduct of the crew as well as for the suitability and the seaworthiness of the registered boat. In cases of force majeure or on grounds of administrative orders or for safety reasons, the organizer is entitled to make changes in the realization of the event or to cancel the event. This does not constitute any liability by the organizer towards the participant, if the reasons for the changes or the cancellation do not result from a willful or grossly negligent behaviour of the organizer. In case of a violation of obligations that do not constitute main / essential contractual duties (primary obligations), the liability of the organizer for financial and property damages incurred by the participant during or in connection with the participation in the event and resulting from a conduct of the organizer, its representatives, servants or agents, is restricted to damages that were caused willfully or grossly negligent. When a violation of primary obligations occurs due to minor negligence, the liability of the organizer is limited to foreseeable, typical damages. To the extent that the liability for damages of the organizer is excluded or restricted, the participant also relieves the staff - employees and representatives, agents, servants, sponsors and individuals who provide or drive salvage, safety or rescue vessels or assist with their use - from the individual liability for damages, as well as all other individuals who were instructed to act in connection with the realization of the event.
- 17.2. World Sailing's effective Racing Rules of Sailing (RRS), the constitution and regulations of German Sailing Association (DSV), especially its regulations on regattasailing (Ordnungsvorschriften Regattasegeln), the class rules as well as the regulations of the Notice of Race and the Sailing Instructions are to be complied with and are expressly recognized.
- 17.3. German law applies.
- 17.4. Competitors shall sign a declaration form of liability disclaimer at registration.

18 [DP] INSURANCE

Each participating boat shall be insured with valid and for the racing area suitable third-party liability insurance with a minimum cover of 3.000.000 € per incident or the equivalent.

Addendum 1

PRIVACY DECLARATION FOR THE PARTICIPATION IN A REGATTA

§ 1 GENERAL

The staging of a regatta by the Rübeler Segler-Verein "Müritz" eV, Müritzpromenade 20 in 17207 Röbel/Müritz (hereinafter "we" or "RSV ") necessitates the collection of data from all participants. Irrespective of whether you have registered by internet, by e-mail or in hard copy form, the protection of your personal information is of paramount importance to us. Therefore, we would like to inform you exactly which personal data provided by you is collected, further processed or otherwise used (collectively referred to as "processing") by us for the purposes of documenting our regatta.

§ 2 RESPONSIBLE BODY

The RSVM is responsible for the processing of personal data in the context of regatta participation. Further information about us, e.g. an e-mail address, can be found under para. 7 b of this declaration as well as the imprint on our website (www.rsvm.de).

§ 3 PURPOSE AND LEGAL BASIS OF DATA PROCESSING

Insofar as personal data of participants is processed within the framework of the regatta participation, this is done for the performance and documentation of the regatta as well as for the fulfillment of our obligations towards class associations, the German Sailing Association or the respective national sailing associations. In addition, we may use your personal information in the context of fraud prevention and as evidence. Personal Data used for generating statistics (e.g. about the development of the number of participants) is strictly anonymized. The anonymized data and statistics are used solely for the respectively stated purposes.

Where not specifically otherwise justified in the body of this statement, the legal basis for the processing of your personal data in the context of regatta participation is Article 6 para. 1 (b) of the general data Protection Regulation ("GDPR"). Should we use the data to prevent or to prove misuse, this is done on the basis of legitimate interest (Art. 6 para. 1 (f) GDPR).

Please note that we will possibly be unable to process your registration if you do not provide us with the relevant personal data, the consequence of which will be that you will not be able to participate in the regatta.

Insofar as you have given us consent for the processing of personal data for specific purposes (Article 6 para. 1 (a), 7 GDPR, e.g. for the production and publication of photos), we may process the data because your consent constitutes permission. You can revoke such consent at any time. Please note that the revocation affects only future activities. Any processing prior to the revocation is not affected.

§ 4 RELEVANT DATA

We process all data which you register and provide in the course of your registration for the regatta. These are data from the following categories: Master data (such as name, address, year of birth), boat number including national identification, club membership or other information voluntarily given by you.

We only process photos/ videos of you in the event that you (or your parents on your behalf) have separately and specifically given us permission.

§ 5 COMMUNICATION OF YOUR DATA

• Responsible Persons To the extent that we are permitted, due to your participation in the regatta and by way of your consent or due to legal regulations, we communicate your data to third parties for the performance of the regatta. These third parties then process your data under their own responsibility. The following persons and addressees, for example, can thus receive your data:

- adjudication officials or judges commissioned by us for the performance of the regatta.
- Class associations, German Sailing Association, national sailing associations (e.g. for the purposes of ranking).
- Public bodies and institutions (such as regulatory authorities) where a legal or regulatory obligation exists.
- Other data recipients may be those for whom you have given us your consent to communicate the data.
- Processors

When implementing and documenting the regatta, we engage external service providers who process personal data on our behalf ("processor"). Specifically, this includes companies in the following categories:

- Technical service providers in the areas of IT and telecommunications (for example, hosting providers), print service providers.
- media and marketing service providers (e.g., web agencies, web designers).
- Photographers / camera staff.

§ 6 DURATION OF DATA STORAGE

Your personal data is stored by us as far as and as long as this may be necessary in the context of the performance and documentation of the regatta or other processing purposes for which you have given your consent (e.g. photo use). In any event, the data is stored until the expiry of any appeal periods for protests in the context of the regatta or as long as your consent for the use of your personal data in the form of photos/ videos of you remains valid. Result lists are stored until at least the end of the calendar year in which the respective regatta took place. Should statutory or contractual retention periods, requiring further storage of your data as part of regatta participation, prevail beyond this point in time, we will also retain your data for these purposes beyond the end of the calendar year. Data for which there is no statutory or contractual retention obligation beyond the calendar year of the regatta date will be anonymized, unless you have expressly and concretely agreed to the further use of your data. Data for which no anonymization is possible is then destroyed or deleted.

§ 7 YOUR RIGHTS

A) Right to Information, correction, restriction, deletion and communication

Upon request, we'll be happy to tell you which personal information is being processed by us. Should the data stored by us be erroneous, you are entitled to appropriate correction. You also have the right to block and delete the data stored by us, should the purpose for the processing of the data cease to exist or should other legal requirements prevail. In the event that the deletion contradicts legal or contractual retention or other statutory reasons, access to your data can be blocked but the data cannot be deleted. In addition, you have a right to have your data sent to you.

B) Right of objection

You have the right, for reasons arising from your particular situation, to object at any time to the processing of your personal data taking place on the basis of a balance of interests (Article 6 para. 1 (f) GDPR). Should you file an objection, we will not process your personal information unless we can demonstrate compelling legitimate grounds for processing which outweigh your interests, rights and liberty, or for the purposes of asserting, pursuing or defending legal claims. The objection can be made free form.

For assertion of the aforementioned rights and / or to obtain more detailed information, please contact our data protection officer as per the following contact details:
